

CRWRC presents Kenya Creation Care Tour

February 12-24, 2010

Is global warming affecting developing countries? You can be part of the answer to this worldwide question on CRWRC's Kenya Creation Care Tour. You'll experience the "greener side" of mission work on this ecologically friendly, environmentally restorative trip to local villages and game preserves—and apply your learning in your own local community. Take a first step on a journey that can lead to the rest of your life! To sign up or get more information, go to www.crwrc.org/servicelearning.
